

August 13, 1964

R. R. Knox

Funeral services for R. R. Knox of Stratford were held at 10:00 a. m., Saturday, Aug. 8 at the Stratford Presbyterian church with the Rev. Robert Carey officiating. Vocalists were Mrs. Marvin Rossow and Mrs. Robert Knickrehm. Mrs. Dale Luedeke was organist. Honorary pall bearers were Harrison Slack, Otis Christian, William Baggett, Fred Wilkie, Arthur Brakus, Herman Rock, Arthur Robinson, Arlo Dayton, Ted Neiger and John Schuman. Active pall bearers were William Jark, Lloyd Face, Ronald Gubin, Allen Robinson, Richard Francoli and Elmer Gould. Ushers were Robert Hanson and Kenneth Jark. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery, West Rondell.

Richard Reuben Knox passed away unexpectedly Wednesday morning at St. Luke's Hospital after a brief illness. He was born May 15, 1888 in Canada and came to the Stratford area as an infant with his parents. He lived on a farm near Stratford, attended Northern Normal in Aberdeen and graduated from a business college. On Dec. 7, 1910, he married Anna E. Monson at Pierpont and the couple have lived on a farm near Stratford since that time. They celebrated their golden wedding in 1960. Mr. Knox was a member of the Presbyterian Church of Stratford, served as elder and trustee, a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge, the Masonic lodge and the Eastern Star of Warner.

Survivors include his widow; three sons, George at home; Carroll of Los Angeles, Calif.; and R. E. (Dick) of Ralston, Neb., and one daughter, Mrs. A. W. (Violet) Stelmer of rural Aberdeen; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.